

INSIGNIA FOR AIDES TO GENERAL OFFICERS

Brigadier General

Major General

Lieutenant General

General

Collar Insignia: A shield, $\frac{3}{4}$ inch in height surmounted by a gold color eagle displayed with wings reversed $\frac{1}{2}$ inch in height; the chief of the shield is blue with silver stars reflecting the grade of the general officer the aide is serving, and 13 vertical stripes, 7 silver and 6 red.

The insignia was approved in 1902.

Information & Plaques Courtesy of The Institute of Heraldry!!