

LOGISTICS

BRANCH INSIGNIA

BRANCH PLAQUE

Branch Insignia: A diagonally crossed cannon, muzzle up and key, ward down and pointing in, surmounted by a ship's steering wheel, all in gold colored metal; bearing on the hub a stylized star and inscribed on the ship's wheel in Latin, above "SUSTINENDUM" and below "VICTORIAM" all in soldier red. Overall dimension is 1 inch (2.54 cm) in height.

Soldier red is the Logistics branch color. The logistics mission of planning, integrating, and executing sustainment activities is represented by elements from the Quartermaster (key) and Transportation (ship's wheel) branch insignia, Ordnance regimental insignia (cannon), and Combined Arms Support Command distinctive unit insignia (stylized star). The key represents the Quartermaster Corps' mission to provide supplies and services; the ship's wheel denotes the Transportation Corps' responsibilities for the movement of troops, supplies, and equipment; the cannon represents the Ordnance Corps' responsibilities of maintenance and munitions; the stylized star represents the unity and integration of logistics functions. The motto translates to "Sustaining Victory."

Branch Plaque: The plaque design has the Logistics branch insignia on a soldier red background with a white circular designation band edged gold and inscribed above "LOGISTICS" and below "UNITED STATES ARMY" in soldier red.

Regimental Insignia: There is no regimental insignia for Logistics. Officers wear the regimental insignia of their assigned functional area of expertise (secondary specialty) within the Logistics branch of Transportation, Ordnance or Quartermaster.

Flag and Guidons: There are no logistic units and accordingly, there are no flags or guidons.

Branch Color: Soldier Red piped with bronze. Soldier Red – 80095 cloth; 67157 yarn; PMS 209. Bronze - 80111 cloth; 67147 yarn; PMS 874.

Birthday: 1 January 2008. Department of the Army General Orders No. 6, dated 27 November 2007, established Logistics as a basic branch of the Army effective 1 January 2008. This changed what was previously known as the functional area 90 (multifunctional logistician) program into a branch of the Army. All Ordnance, Quartermaster and Transportation Corps basic branch officers of all components (Active, Reserve and National Guard), in the rank of Captain or above, who have graduated from the Combined Logistics Captains Career Course (or its earlier equivalent called the Combined Logistics Officer Advanced Course) or any Ordnance, Quartermaster or Transportation Corps Reserve Component Captains Career Course will wear the Logistics branch insignia.

Information & Plaques Courtesy of The Institute of Heraldry!!